

Holliston Historical Commission – Meeting Minutes

April 14, 2015

Attendance: not specified, Skip Kelleher, Jay Robinson

Discussion of Demolition Permit for 94 Elm Street

Historically significant? Yes

Tear down rear carriage house

Plans to reconstruct to look like the original

Motion – HC finds the structure not preferably preserved.

In a unanimous vote, the commission find the structure at 94 Elm Street not preferably preserved.

Discussion of the Restoration of Congregational Church Clock

Presented by Jay Robinson

111 year old clock

Suffered water damage

Funding sources – CPC?

Research preservation grants

Discussion of Brooksmont

Plan to attend conservation and planning board meetings

Discussion of Flagg Storage

Talk to Paul LeBeau.

Meeting adjourned.