

The Central Street Water Treatment Plant went on-line in November of 2022 with tremendous success and has improved water quality throughout town. The Holliston Water Department continues oversight of contractors to address any operational issues that arise during this start up phase and into the first year of warranty. Since going on-line in November of 2022 the plant has pumped just over 100 million gallons of filtered water into the Holliston System.